Learning to play the game

LEFT– D.J. Lyons practices putting during a Junior Golf Camp at Tijeras Arroyo Golf Course, June 14-18. The camp, which was cosponsored by the youth center, was part of an Air Force program called Golf 4 Kids, which launched in 2004. The Air Force provided a set of clubs, shirt, cap, towel and bag tag.

ABOVE– Amanda Lyons putts during the golf camp. Emphasis of the camp was on getting students to understand the etiquette, safety and terms used in golf. Students also practiced grip, stance, putting, chipping, pitching, bunker shots and the full golf swing.
